

Churches for Middle East Peace (CMEP)

Church Partner Description

<http://cmep.org/about/partners/partnership/>

Churches for Middle East Peace (CMEP) relies on partnership to promote a just and lasting peace in the Middle East, through a holistic resolution of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Through our mutually supportive partnership we seek to support local efforts, maximize effectiveness, and provide opportunities to expand impact and influence in Middle East peacebuilding efforts.

A CMEP Partner:

- Affirms CMEP's mission and policy positions seeking a durable and just peace
- Annually registers as a committed CMEP Church Partner
- Contributes financially to CMEP (Partner support ranges from $250 to $25,000/year)
- Works toward a just peace in the Israeli/Palestinian conflict and in the region through:
 - Hosting Awareness & Educational Events
 - Taking trips to the Holy Land
 - Participating in Government Engagement & Congressional Advocacy

CMEP offers Partners:

- Awareness & Education opportunities about Israel, Palestine & the Middle East
 - Weekly Bulletin & Resources
 - Consulting on Trips to the Holy Land
 - Pilgrimage to Peace (P2P) Tours and other local events
 - Discipleship Support
- Access to Christian Partners in the Holy Land
- Opportunities for Government Engagement & Congressional Advocacy
 - Action Alerts for national engagement and advocacy
 - Specific letters and public statements
 - D.C. and local district advocacy opportunities with Members of Congress
 - Political briefings in preparation for meetings with policymakers
